FJC Welcomes Distinguished Community Development Finance Professional to Board of Directors

New York City, NY (December 16, 2019) – FJC – A Foundation of Philanthropic Funds announced the appointment of Amber M. Randolph to its Board of Directors, effective January 1, 2020.

The Board provides critical governance and oversight functions to FJC, a public charity that provides total management of charitable giving and offers a diverse menu of philanthropic services, including Donor Advised Funds and fiscal sponsorships.

“We are excited to bring Amber’s unique blend of skills and experiences onto the Board,” said Lorin Silverman, President of the Board of Directors. “Amber has had a distinguished career providing support for both nonprofit and for-profit institutions, which makes her a perfect fit to help guide FJC.”

Among other responsibilities, Amber will serve on the Board’s Fiscal Sponsorship Program Committee, which provides final approval of applications from nonprofit projects or organizations that are seeking fiscal sponsorship by FJC awaiting approval of their tax exempt 501(c)3 status from the Internal Revenue Service.

Ms. Randolph currently serves as Senior Vice Chancellor for Administration, Economic Development and Chief Financial Officer of Rutgers University-Newark, with a portfolio that includes financial management and planning, campus planning and facilities, real estate, and the university’s engagement with the surrounding community. Prior to her position at Rutgers, she held positions at various institutions at the intersection of community development, impact investing, and the nonprofit sector, including Low Income Investment Fund, Primary Care Development Corporation, and Deutsche Bank’s Community Development Finance Group.

“I have great enthusiasm and respect for FJC, its innovative leadership and committed board members; I look forward to joining them in their good work,” said Randolph. “FJC is an impact investing pioneer and innovator. I believe there is tremendous opportunity to create value for FJC donors and to help them channel philanthropic capital to solutions that are addressing our communities’ most pressing challenges.”

About FJC: FJC is a boutique public charity that offers a diverse menu of philanthropic services to a range of stakeholders. Its mission is to increase and maximize the impact of charitable dollars, create innovative and customized philanthropic solutions, and respond effectively to the needs and interests of donors, charitable agencies, borrowers, as well as investment and wealth advisors. As the premier foundation of donor advised funds, FJC continually pioneers better ways of giving. FJC has over $300 million in assets and has distributed over $400 million in grants to charities around the world. In addition to grantmaking, FJC offers its partners a unique investment in its Agency Loan Fund, which has advanced over $280 million in loans to over 200 nonprofit organizations globally.
