Inspiring Voter Participation Through Arts and Media

Founded and initially funded by FJC donors, F.Y. Eye was created to democratize the town square. The organization is a nonprofit media agency that builds campaigns that call people to take action, including a partnership with DemocracyNYC, the City's nonpartisan initiative to increase voter participation and civic engagement.

FJC Donors Celebrate Opening of New York Public Library "Treasures"

On September 24, FJC donors Leonard Polonsky CBE and Georgette Bennett joined New York City's civic community to celebrate the opening of The Polonsky Exhibition of The New York Public Library's Treasures. This permanent exhibition showcases over 250 rare items from the Library's renowned research collections. The exhibition was made possible in part by the sale of Dr. Polonsky's and Dr. Bennett's vacation home, which had been donated to FJC.

Anticipating Changes to the U.S. Tax Code - A Conversation with FJC Board Member Neal Myerberg

In anticipation of possible changes to U.S. Tax Code, our CEO Sam Marks interviewed FJC Board Member, Neal Myerberg, Principal at Myerberg Philanthropic Advisors. As the general shape of the coming tax reform comes into focus, Mr. Myerberg recommends a few ideas that FJC donors should talk to their tax advisors about, particularly relating to charitable giving.
