

Donors Respond to the Ukraine Crisis

FJC donors have responded rapidly to the unfolding crisis in the Ukraine, recommending over $1.5 million in grants to organizations providing emergency support to refugees. Support has also poured in for the Jewish Community of Poland Fund, an organization that has been fiscally sponsored by FJC for 32 years, and whose scope has dramatically and tragically shifted in recent weeks.

Donor Loan Facilitates Emergency Resettlement of Afghan Allies

An FJC donor has provided a 0%-interest philanthropic loan to help kick-start a $10 million initiative to help newly arrived Afghans rebuild their lives in the United States. The loan program is a component of Support for Afghan Financial Empowerment (SAFE), an initiative launched by the International Rescue Committee (IRC) and their Center for Economic Opportunity (CEO) to empower Afghan families as they begin their journey to financial stability and economic security in their new homes across the U.S.
