A Family's Evolution in Giving

FJC Donor Sandra Hughes Waddell writes a guest essay, describing how Donor Advised Fund accounts are helping her family sustain the legacy of their ancestor Charles Evans Hughes. She writes, "Experience has taught me that effective philanthropy calls for actively listening to and learning from those in the organizations and communities you seek to serve, building relationships and fostering partnerships."

Under FJC's Umbrella, An Orchestra Takes a Step Toward Independence

When Hudson Valley Symphony Orchestra came to FJC this spring with an ambitious goal of a May 2024 concert date, FJC was able to work quickly to get the organization approved as a fiscally sponsored program. The musicians had made a strategic decision to spin off from a local opera house and pursue Fiscal Sponsorship as an interim step toward becoming fully independent.
